ARIZONA CLUB NOTES

Official Organ State Federation of Woman's Clubs

That the members of the Orange-wood Ramona Club in general and the committee in charge in particular, were determined that the shadow of war should not fall upon the happiness of the little children at Christmas was evinced in the delightful entertainment given the little ones at the home of Mrs. J. W. Rice on Wednesday afternoon.

In their characteristic manner the little folks recited Christmas stories and sang songs. Mrs. Lee Bayless sang a group of songs and Miss Marygro Landrum and Mrs. J. J. Heard entertained with instrumental selections.

One feature of the day was the reading of the following poem written and dedicated to the club by Mrs. Landrum.

"THE ORANGEWOOD RAMONA CLUB FROM A TO Z."

A stands for aid, our members believe it's blessed to give, also to receive. B is for burdens these members all bear.

C for care and of worry they each have a share. D for our club; its members are fine, if you think so, just come and "line."

E is for dues which we owe every year. F is for funds in the treasury we save and are hoping for more—a large sum we crave.

G stands for the goodness of our members they say. Always helping each other in such a nice way.

H for our hostess, who asked all to her home. And gave gracious welcome to all those who came.

I stands for its influence, each member has some. Let's use it for good, not live just for fun.

K stands for kinsmen—we hope there are none who fear. If you hear one don't listen, just run.

L is for loyalty each member should feel. To help the club on. We make this appeal.

M stands for our musicians, of such a high grade. And all who hear them are fully over.

N stands for nerve, our members must use. When they ask for the needful, no one will refuse.

O is for obedience, these we meet every day. Mr. Roosevelt says, "simply push them away."

P is for politics—this club hasn't any. We have been told "This the ruin of many."

R is for rapture, each member knows. At all of our meetings right up to the close.

S is our spreads when business is over. The best of it, we're helping out Hoover.

T stands for talking—so much must be done. It's for the same everywhere under the sun.

U is for union—this to the Club members all. For united we stand—and divided we fall.

The executive board of the Arizona Congress of Mothers will hold an all day meeting at the Madison School Monday, January 7. Arrangements for the annual meeting of the Congress will be made at this time.

The second informal Sunday afternoon program will be given at 9:30 this afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. rooms, 127 North Central. Mrs. A. T. Egan will read "The Dawn of Tomorrow" by Frances Hodgson Burnett. Miss Harris will furnish several violin numbers and Miss Hazel Soule will sing. These Sunday afternoon meetings are most informal and girls and young women are invited to come in for all or part of the afternoon. It is a splendid opportunity for strangers in the city to make new friends and it is hoped that many of them will come to make the Association their Sunday afternoon home. The rooms will be kept open until church time for those who wish to wait down town.
